Jun 8: How to use Zoom

Hello Everyone,

I'd like to share an announcement about a useful training that is being presented by one of my colleagues at San Francisco Senior Center, Rebekah Wright.

At the present time, so many classes, workshops, art and music presentations are going online to try to help fill the void left by closed centers, schools and performance venues.

One way groups are making these events accessible is by offering them on the conference platform called "Zoom". It has become a great tool to find education, entertainment and activities, but not everyone is familiar or comfortable trying to figure out how to use "Zoom". (I would have to raise my hand as part of that group!)

So we'd like to offer folks the chance to take what I'll call a "guided primer" into the world of Zoom and subsequently into a world full of online activities.

Please see the announcement below about the first Zoom training happening this Friday, June 12. If you are interested, there is a link at the bottom of the page to rsvp to Rebekah.

Thank you,
Frank

Program Announcement: Zoom Training

This Friday, June 12th at 1:00 pm we will begin an ongoing training series for the video conferencing program called Zoom!

Zoom is a great way to connect with friends and family around the world and here at home. But wait, it gets better, Zoom is a free program!

In this training you will learn to use Zoom for:

- Attending virtual programs and classes
- Visiting with friends and family
- Creating your own virtual meetings

So, if you are missing the faces of the wonderful people at the Senior Center, or you really want to say hello to your grandchildren, friends and family, Zoom training is the perfect thing for you.

Each training session will be adapted to fit you. All abilities welcome to sign up!

For information, please contact Rebekah at rwright@sequoialiving.org or call 415-484-5466 (please call between 9:00am – 4:00pm Monday through Friday).

Include the type of device you will use for Zoom information when you RSVP.

(iPhone, iPad, Laptop, Desktop) also be sure to include your email address so we can send you the Zoom link by email, and phone number.

To keep the training personalized, for our first session on June 12th we will accept the first five people to RSVP. Any subsequent RSVPs we will create another class soon after.

Please click on this link to RSVP.
